Duckpin and Tenpin Leagues Forming Teams at Local Alleys for Season's Games

THEIR LISTS FOR WINTER MATCHES

Elimination Practicing Already Begun by Some of District Teams.

SEASON PROMISES TO BE LIVELY ONE

Duckpins Will Be No Less Popular Than the Big Ones This Year.

The bowling season in Washington promises to be as lively as ever during the coming winter, and already the various leagues and team have commenced to arrange their schedule, and in some cases the teams have commenced their elimination practice, to decide on which bowlers shall be on the regular teams. Duckpins will be just as popular as the larger pins and teams to roll both are being formed at all the clubs.

The owners and managers are preparing their alleys for the coming matches, and in several cases complete remodeling is being done.

The Clerks' Duckpin League, of the Southern railroad, will probably roll at the Arcade alleys, and in preparation for this, Manager Hillebrand has a completely new apparatus installed at the big amusement place. There will be fourteen alleys at the Arcade, and spe cial alleys will be laid aside for the use of women during the afternoon and evening.

The Mt. Vernon Athletic Club has held its annual election of officers, who are: Joseph R. Costinett, president; J. Gulli, secretary: F. Geraci, treasurer Mr. Costinett will have a team in the National Capital League. D. McCarthe will be captain of the team and the other bowlers will be J. Baum, V. Gulli, F. Howard, F. Geraci, and J. J. Wag-The National Capital League will bowl its matches at the Palace bowling

The Royal bowling alleys are now undergoing repairs and alterations, as are the alleys of M. I. Breisford, at 421 Star of 1909 Football Eleven Featherweight Ninth street.
